

The Holy Name of Our Lord Jesus Christ

1 January

C or C

Book of Common Prayer (1979)

In pre-Vatican II Roman use, this was known as the Octave Day of Christmas (it had no other name), and its theme was the Circumcision of Jesus, the Jewish rite by which he received his Name. There was in addition a Feast of the Holy Name, with the same theme, kept on the following Sunday, that is to say, on 2, 3, 4, or 5 January, whichever of those days was Sunday, but if none was, then on 2 January regardless.

Since Vatican II, the Octave Day of Christmas is known in the Roman calendar as the Solemnity of Mary, Mother of God. This festival has not been adopted by the Anglican Communion.

The 1928 and preceding Prayer Books kept this day as the Feast of the Circumcision. The theme is the same in the 1979 Prayer Book, but with a change of name, probably not out of modesty, but in order to emphasize the religious significance of the occasion. In a culture where most newborn males are routinely circumcised for alleged hygienic reasons, many people, unless they are Jewish, fail to grasp the religious significance of the rite.

All praise to thee

F. Bland Tucker, 1895-1984

1. All praise to thee, for thou, O King divine didst yield the glory that of right was thine, that in our darkened hearts thy grace might shine.
Alleluia.

2. Thou camest to us in lowliness of thought;
by thee the outcast and the poor were sought;
and by thy death was God's salvation wrought.
Alleluia.

3. Let this mind be in us which was in thee,
who wast a servant that we might be free,
humbling thyself to death on Calvary.
Alleluia.

4. Wherefore, by God's eternal purpose, thou art high exalted o'er al creatures now, and given the Name to which all knees shall bow.
Alleluia.

5. Let every tongue confess with one accord
in heaven and earth that Jesus Christ is Lord;
and God the Father be by all adored.
Alleluia.

1. To the Name of our salvation laud and honour let us pay, which for many a generation hid in God's foreknowledge lay;
but with holy exultation we may sing aloud today.

Anglican Gradual and Sacramentary

2. Jesus is the Name we treasure; Name beyond what words can tell;
Name of gladness, Name of pleasure, ear and heart delighting well;
Name of sweetness, passing measure, saving us from sin and hell.

3. 'Tis the Name that whoso preacheth speaks like music to the ear;
who in prayer this Name beseecheth sweetest comfort findeth near;
who its perfect wisdom reacheth, heavenly joy possesseth here.

4. Therefore we, in love adoring, this most blessed Name revere, holy Jesus, thee imploring so to write it in us here that hereafter, heavenward soaring, we may sing with angels there.

Refrain. O Lord our Governor, how exalted is your Name in all the world!

V. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, * the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,

V. What is man that you should be mindful of him? * the son of man that you should seek him out?

Refrain.

V. You have made him but little lower than the angels; * you adorn him with glory and honor;

V. You give him mastery over the works of your hands; * you put all things under his feet:

Refrain.

V. All sheep and oxen, * even the wild beasts of the field,

V. The birds of the air, the fish of the sea, * and whatsoever walks in the paths of the sea.

Jesu dulcis memoria

Latín, siglo XII, atr. San Bernardo de

(1837-1916)

1. Jesús, tu dulce Nombre recrea el alma mía
y suena en mis oídos cual célica armonía.
Con tal vigor quisiera poderlo proclamar,
que todo el universo lo oyera resonar.
2. Riquezas mi deseo fuera de ti no alcanza;
tú solo mi delicia, tú solo mi esperanza.
Las joyas tan buscadas con ansiedad febril,
A ti son dijes vanos, y el oro polvo vil.

3. Cuanto de bello y grande codicie mi deseo,
en tu bondad divina de sobra lo poseo.
Ni es cara a mis ojos del sol la claridad,
ni al corazón tan dulce la más pura amistad.

4. Tu gracia bienhechora hizo en mi pecho estancia,
y en él copiosamente esparce su fragancia;
el bálsamo más noble a todo su dolor,
y a todos sus cuidados el remedio mejor.

5. Las glorias de tu Nombre proclamaré contento, mientras el suelo habite y en el postrer aliento.
Entonces en tus brazos tendré vida eternal,
pues eres de la muerte antídoto inmortal.
