Collect after the Prayers of the People

O Lord, because being compassed with infirmities we oftentimes sin and ask for pardon: Help us to forgive as we would be forgiven; neither mentioning old offenses committed against us, nor dwelling upon them in thought, nor being influenced by them in heart; but loving our brother freely, as thou freely lovest us; for Christ's sake. Amen.

Psalm 142:5, with verses 1,2/3,4/6,7

The refrain is recited first by a leader or cantor and then repeated by the congregation. It is repeated again by all where indicated in the text.

Refrain. You are my refuge, O Lord; my portion in the land of the living.

V. I cry to the LORD with my voice; * to the LORD I make loud supplication.

Gradual

Audiam

Psalm 85:8, with verses 7,8/9,10/11,13

The refrain is recited first by a leader or cantor and then repeated by the congregation. It is repeated again by all where indicated in the text.

Refrain. I will listen to what the Lord God is saying.

V. Show us your mercy, O LORD, * and grant us your salvation.

V. When evildoers came upon me to eat up my flesh, * it was they, my foes and my adversaries, who stumbled and fell.

Refrain.

V. Though an army should encamp against me, * yet my heart shall not be afraid;

V. And though war should rise up against me, * yet will I put my trust in him.

Refrain.

V. One thing have I asked of the LORD; one thing I seek; * that I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life;

V. To behold the fair beauty of the LORD * and to seek him in his temple.

Refrain.

V. I pour out my complaint before him * and tell him all my trouble.

Refrain.

V. When my spirit languishes within me, you know my path; * in the way wherein I walk they have hidden a trap for me.

V. I look to my right hand and find no one who knows me; * I have no place to flee to, and no one cares for me.

Refrain.

V. Listen to my cry for help, for I have been brought very low; * save me from those who pursue me, for they are too strong for me.

V. Bring me out of prison, that I may give thanks to your Name; * when you have dealt bountifully with me, the righteous will gather around me.

Refrain.

V. I will listen to what the LORD God is saying, * for he is speaking peace to his faithful people and to those who turn their hearts to him.

Refrain.

V. Truly, his salvation is very near to those who fear him, * that his glory may dwell in our land.

V. Mercy and truth have met together; * righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

Refrain.

V. Truth shall spring up from the earth, * and righteousness shall look down from heaven.

V. Righteousness shall go before him, * and peace shall be a pathway for his feet.

Refrain.

- V. For in the day of trouble he shall keep me safe in his shelter; * he shall hide me in the secrecy of his dwelling and set me high upon a rock.
- V. Therefore I will offer in his dwelling an oblation with sounds of great gladness; * I will sing and make music to the LORD.

Refrain.

The refrain is recited first by a leader or cantor and then repeated by the congregation. It is repeated again by all where indicated in the text.

Refrain. Lord, you have been our refuge from one generation to another.

Refrain. Remember us, O Lord, with the favor you have for your people.

V. Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born, * from age to age you are God.

V. We have sinned as our forebears did; * we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.

V. You turn us back to the dust and say, * “Go back, O child of earth.”

Refrain.

V. For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past * and like a watch in the night.

V. Our iniquities you have set before you, * and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.

Refrain.

V. When you are angry, all our days are gone; * we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

V. The span of our life is seventy years, perhaps in strength even eighty; * yet the sum of them is but labor and sorrow, for they pass away quickly and we are gone.

Refrain.

V. Who regards the power of your wrath? * who rightly fears your indignation?

V. So teach us to number our days * that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.

Refrain.

V. Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb * and worshiped a molten image;

V. And so they exchanged their Glory * for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.

Refrain.

V. They forgot God their Savior, * who had done great things in Egypt,

V. Wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, * and fearful things at the Red Sea.

Refrain.

V. So he would have destroyed them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, * to turn away his wrath from consuming them.

Escucharé lo que dice el Señor Dios.

V. El Señor es la fortaleza de mi vida; ¿de quién he de atemorizarme? V. En voz alta clamo al Señor; * en voz alta suplico al Señor. V. Señor, muéstranos tu misericordia, * y concédenos tu salvación.

V. Cuando se juntaros contra mí los malignos para comer mis carnes, * ellos mismos, mis adversarios y mis enemigos, tropezaron y cayeron. V. Delante de él expongo mi queja, * y desahogo ante él mis afanes. V. Escucharé lo que dice el Señor Dios; * porque anuncia paz a su pueblo fiel, a los que se convierten de corazón.

Introibo

Salmo 43:4

Comunión

Multitudo

Lucas 6:18,19

Me acercaré al altar de Dios, al Dios de mi alegría y de mi gozo.

Muchos enfermos y los que eran molestados de los espíritus impuros habían venido para oírle; porque salía de él una virtud que sanaba a todos.

Poscomunión

Pedimos, Señor, que tus sacramentos obren en nosotros lo que contienen, para que realmente alcancemos lo que simbólicamente celebramos; por Jesucristo nuestro Señor. Amén.
